

PR910 Chef's Anti -Slip 'Anchor' Clog

Description

Dress from head-to-toe in Premier chefswear with addition of our Anti-Slip 'Anchor' Chef's Clogs. This style of footwear is favoured by kitchen and catering teams who spend a great deal of time on their feet and need a comfortable solution. Lightweight with an anti-slip shock absorbing sole to grip tiled floors. Slip into the wide-fit clog quickly and easily with a moulded heel and sole for extra comfort and slip resistance. A hinged strap can be used to form a secure fastening around the heel. Rubber is water resistant by nature so this helps protect the upper foot from spillages. Available in five dual sizes with a wide fit for comfort.
